

FPSB India renewal registration process

The screenshot shows the FPSB India website interface. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links: About Us, CFP^{CM} Certification, Publications, Events, Education Providers, Media Room, and CFP^{CM} Certificant Directory. The main banner features the text "Career Opportunities make a mark in financial services sector" with a background image of a man working on a laptop. Below the banner, there are three main sections: "Financial Consumers", "Financial Professionals", and "Financial Institutions". A yellow arrow points to the "Login" button in the "Login to eCMS" section, which is part of the "Online Certification Management System". The "Login to eCMS" section also includes a "LOGIN" button and a message for existing students/certificants to activate their online account. Below this, there are two download buttons: "CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD" for the "FPSB INDIA ANNUAL REPORT 2009 - 2010" and "CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD" for the "FPSB INDIA JUNE REPORT 2010". The "What's New" section lists several updates, including notification spreadsheets at NSEIT Test Centres, addresses of NSE Test Centers, and exam dates for FPSB India Exams. The "Quick Links" section on the left provides links to download forms, certification pathways, and other resources. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the start button, Google search, and several open applications, including "FPSB renewal" and "FPSB India - F...". The system clock shows 9:39 PM.
